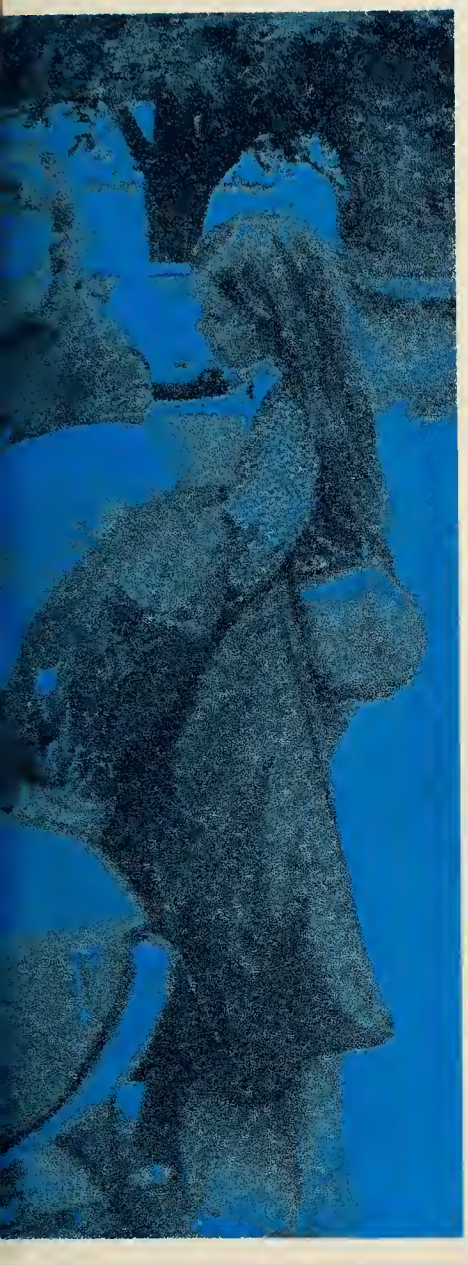
If I had the gift of being able to speak in other languages without learning them, and could speak in every language there is in all of heaven and earth, but didn't love others, I would only be making noise.

If I had the gift of prophecy and knew all about what is going to happen in the future, knew everything about everything, but didn't love others, what good would it do?

Even if I had the gift of faith so that I could speak to a mountain and make it move, I would still be...

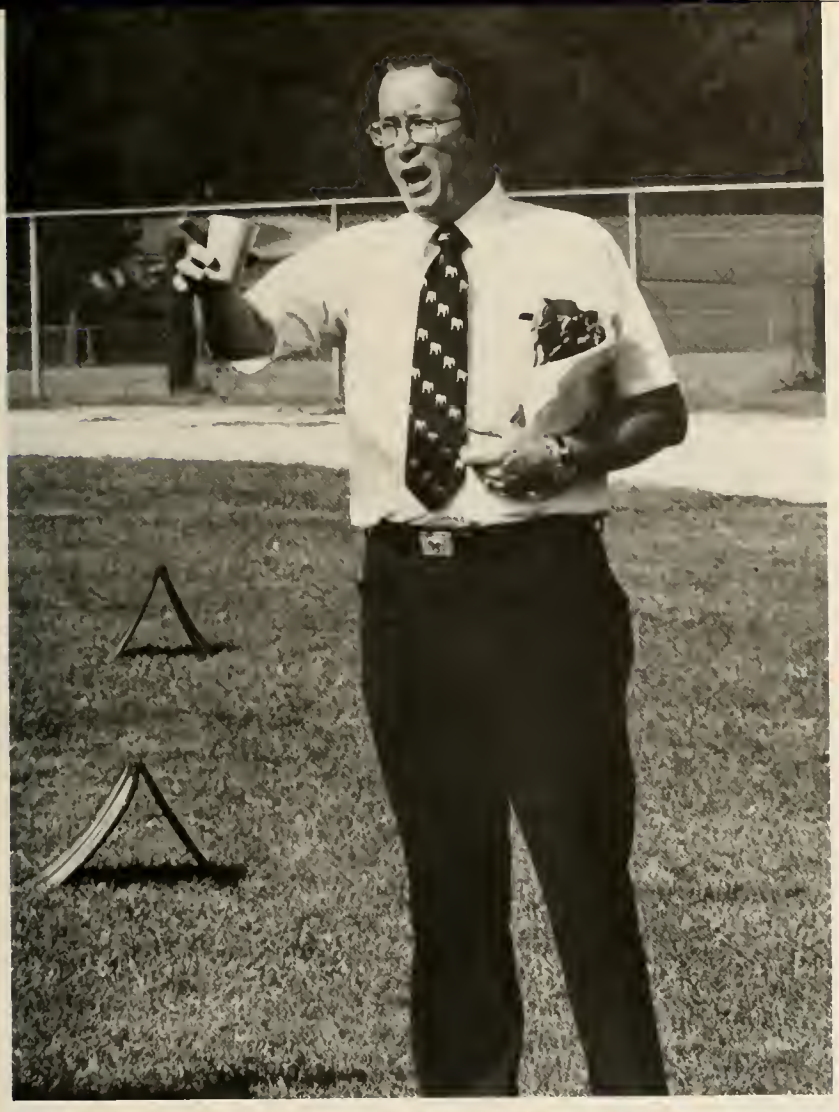


worth nothing at all without love.

If I gave everything I have to poor people, and if I were burned alive for preaching the Gospel but didn't love others, it would be of no value whatever.

Love is very patient and kind, never jealous or envious, never boastful or proud, never haughty or selfish or rude. Love does not demand its own way. It is not irritable or touchy. It does not hold grudges and will hardly even notice when others do it wrong.

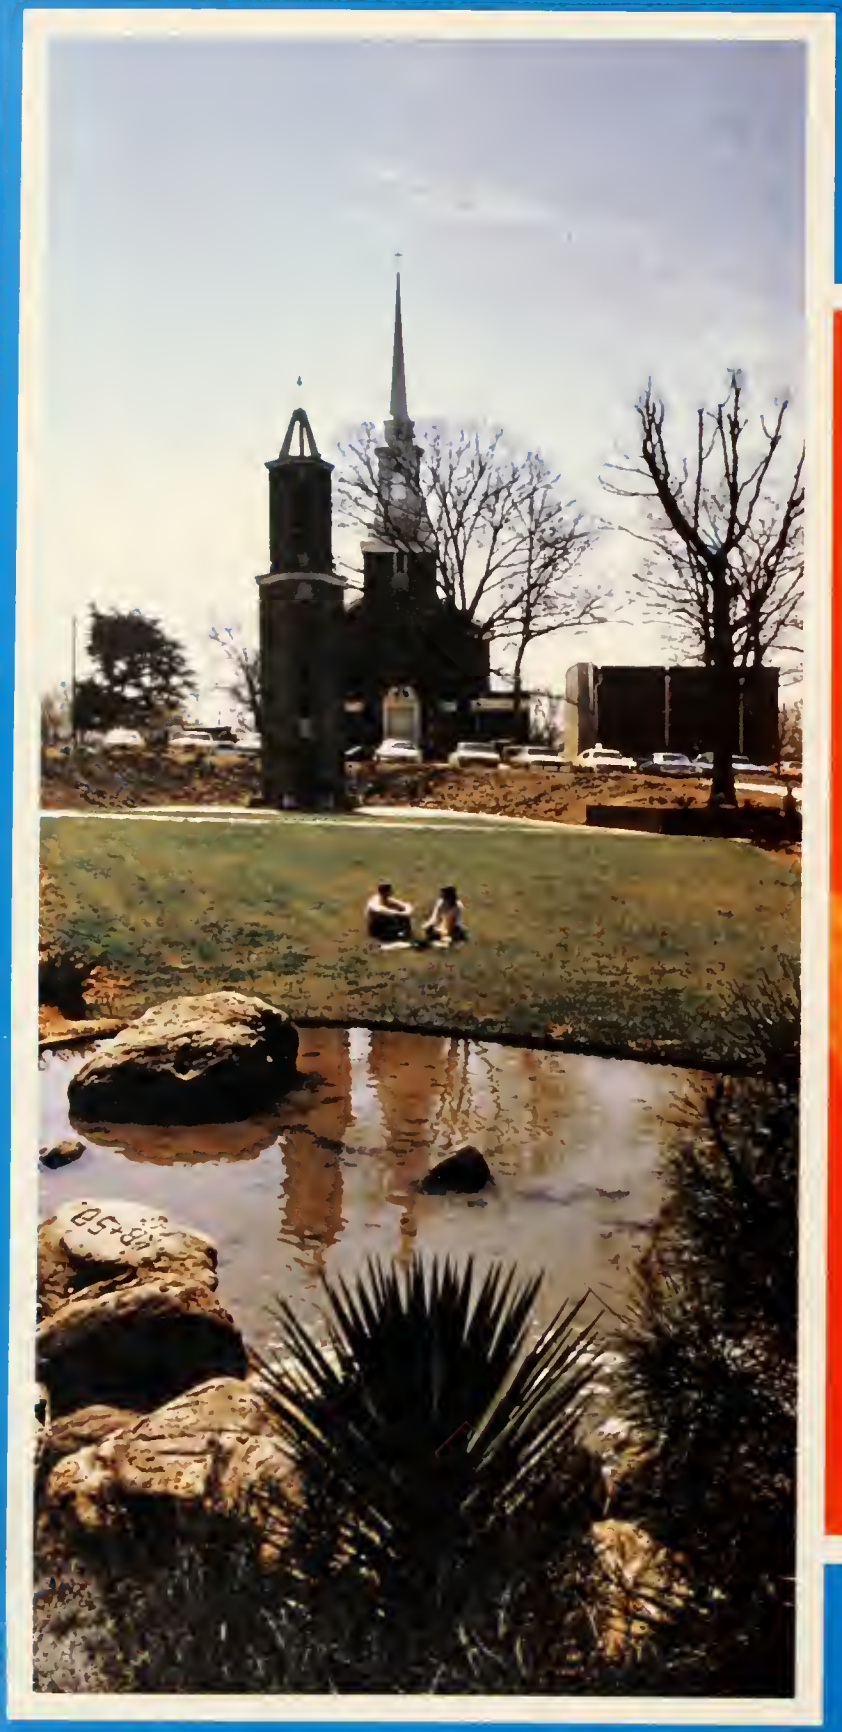
BETTER



It is never glad about injustice, but rejoices whenever truth wins out. If you love someone you will be loyal to him no matter what the cost. You will always believe in him, always expect the best of him, and always stand your ground in defending him.

All the special gifts and powers from God will someday . . .

come to an end, but love goes on forever. Someday prophecy, and speaking in unknown languages, and special knowledge — these gifts will disappear. Now we know so little, even with our special gifts, and the preaching...



of those most gifted is still so poor. But when we have been made perfect and complete, then the need for these inadequate special gifts will come to an end, and they will disappear.

It's like this: when I was a child I spoke and thought and reasoned as a child does. But when I became a man my thoughts grew far beyond those of my childhood, and now I have...

put away the childish things. In the same way, we can see and understand only a little about God now, as if we were peering at his reflection in a poor mirror; but someday we are going to see him in his completeness, face to face.

Now all that I know is hazy and blurred, but then I will see everything clearly, just as clearly as God sees into my heart right now.

There are three things that remain — faith, hope, and love — and the greatest of these is love.

The greatest of these is Love

Dedication . . .

To the students of Gardner-Webb . . . the ones who look beyond reality and have their unique dream . . . without fears of the unknown . . . strengthened by a common bond . . . desiring to conquer the ties of this world . . . to become stable in a land groping for Christian leadership . . . finding within one another a love found nowhere else in the world. The Gardner-Webb student . . . tasting the bitter sweetness of college life . . . building a fortress based on the hunger for education . . . using materials granted individually by the Creator . . . although struggling. finding victory a complete reward. To the Student Body, the WEB dedicates this history of the 1973-74 school year.

"Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with your soul. With all its shame, drudgery and broken dreams it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy . . ." We are ready now, to leave "our world" and face the future. We are all individuals, and we strive to be ourselves, but in our lives we all have one thing in common. We will strive to discover new horizons, and learn to depend, not on the past, not on the present, but on that unpredictable force — the future.

Confusion . . . one way to describe the mind of a student, who daily faces internal and external conflicts. And, when reality becomes too much, everyone needs a little lovin'. The providers of this mother care, the constant comforters, the authoratative yet forgiving figures on Gardner-Webb campus, are the house mothers.

The WEB would like to express appreciation to the wonderful women who are in charge of the girls' dormitories. Thank you . . . for prowling the halls at 2:00 a.m. . . for putting cotton in your ears on the night before Christmas holidays . . . for conspiring with Mr. Banner at panty raid time . . . for listening to our sob stories . . . for pretending like you don't see those extra "good-night kisses" . . . for understanding young people when spring comes . . . and most of all, for providing examples to be respected and loved. Thanks for simply being a "MOM".

FALL REVIVAL

Dr. J. Herbert Gilmore, pastor of the Baptist Church of the Covenant, Birmingham, Alabama was the speaker at the annual Fall Revival on the campus of Gardner-Webb College held September 10-14.

Music director for the revival was David Peninger, Minister of music, Fernwood Baptist Church, Spartanburg, S.C. The revival was part of the Staley Distinguished Christian Scholar Lecture program.

Denny Brooks

Denny Brooks, ballad singer, performed in concert during Homecoming festivities on Saturday night, October 20, 1973. Activities started Thursday night with the unusual soul show of 'Liberation,' with Nantucket Sleighride the following night, whose music provided a dance in the Bulldog Room. Goose Creek Symphony highlighted the weekend entertainment Saturday night, accompanied by the solo act of Denny Brooks.

Homecoming Field Decorations

Decorations for homecoming week boosted spirits by giving prizes for best dorm and stadium decoration. Nanney Hall took the honors for the best residence hall decorations and the freshman class sparked spirit from the crowd with the best display at the stadium.

Patti Epley, a senior from Lakeland, Florida was chosen by the student body to represent Gardner-Webb as homecoming queen.

HOMECOMING QUEEN--Patti Epley

Homecoming week of 1973 was unified by the theme of "Coming Home," which was carried out with much enthusiasm among the entire college family.

Coffeehouse Entertainment

Coffeehouse entertainment offers a time when the students can escape to an entirely different atmosphere on campus. One can relax to the type of music portrayed by the folk type singers such as Buck Ford. Mike Simmons served as Coffeehouse Committee which is a segment of the Student Center Board.

Rick Cerruno offered an interesting lecture to students and was well accepted.

RAY STEVENS CONCERT

February 14, 1974

In the music business, Ray Stevens is "unreal". He composes his own music, arranges the orchestrations, produces the recording sessions, and sings every part. Ray is an accomplished musician having a major in theory and composition of music from Georgia State University. The initial impression is of a shy somewhat introverted man, an impression that is quickly dispelled by his keen awareness of things and his wide variety of interests. Of his many interests and abilities, Ray counts songwriting as the one that means most to him as it is a way of communication between people.

"CONRACK" Shares His Teaching Experiences On G-W Campus

The author of a book dealing with the problems of black school students on a small island off the coast of South Carolina appeared before Gardner-Webb students. Pat Conroy, of Atlanta, author of "The Water is Wide", appeared on the campus of the college February 5-6, 1974, including a lecture open to the public. Conroy appeared before student and faculty groups with emphasis in the area of the education division classes. His book deals with the problems of teaching a group of youngsters, all black, who had very limited knowledge of events and people off the small island. Conroy said that his book was being made into a movie which will star John Voight. His book has been reviewed nationally and has been used extensively in colleges throughout the country, including Gardner-Webb. He was well received by the students and expressed his feelings on school systems. His friendly and warm personality made a real impression.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK - FEB. 11-15

A well known author and professor, John Drakeford and his wife, Mrs. Drakeford, were the guest speakers during Religious Emphasis Week, February 11 - 15, at Gardner-Webb. Dr. Drakeford has a broad educational background having earned five degrees. He is author of sixteen books. One of his books, "Psychology in Search of a Soul", is used as a textbook at Gardner-Webb. Mrs. Drakeford led an experimental Bible study on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights for Gardner-Webb students. Dr. Drakeford spoke in special chapel sessions on topics such as: The Developing Love Life, Why Sexual Morality, Whither Family Life?, Farewell to the Lonely Crowd, and The Awesome Power of the Listening Ear.

JEFF McNEILL, President

SYLVIA JOHNS, Secretary

BOB DECKER, JR., Treasurer

Let us reminise momentarily over our last year. We did our job, we acted as good diplomats, we did not generate a revolution, and we were calm. Student Government used bundles of paper and typewriter ribbons, Sylvia cried, the Senate met, and I sincerely tried to act like I knew what I was doing.

Ike and Tina Turner never got funky and Billy Preston never had his chance to let it go round in circles. Some others never really understood the purpose.

We wrote you a new constitution and hopefully built a foundation for new and better ideas. We established a Traffic Court, House Councils, and made much progress in insuring due process for all.

None of these material objectives will in any way ever mean as much as the friendships we acquired over the year. I sincerely hope that we won the trust of our fellow students, that was our number one goal. We grew in maturity and learned respect for our fellowman.

Student Government was indeed good to us. It made each one understand a little better the facts of life and made each one a little better person. We can leave now knowing that our lives as leaders are just beginning.

ORCHESTRA

The Gardner-Webb orchestra gave its first performance on opening night of the drama the "King and I." This is another step toward the growth of the college. Mr. Bob Decker is the orchestra director.

THE KING and I

A musical play in two acts, The King and I, was presented by the Gardner-Webb College department of fine arts, February 21-23.

The King and I was one of Broadway's longest running plays. The comedy is based on the book, Anna and the King of Siam, by Margaret Landon. The play is a story of a widow in the 1860's who goes to Siam to teach English to the children of the King.

The entire production was directed by Dr. Charles W. Cox, professor of theatre arts and speech. Mr. Robert Decker conducted the twenty-three piece orchestra.

The drama production was the first of its nature on Gardner-Webb campus. It was enjoyed by many of the college and community and was termed a "big success."

Gardner-Webb Participates in First Poultry Bowl...

The year 1973 was a banner year for Gardner-Webb Football. The highlight of the season came with an invitation to play in the first bowl game in the school's history, the Poultry Bowl.

The first annual Poultry Bowl, an officially sanctioned NAIA Bowl game, was held in Gainesville, Georgia, the poultry capital of the world, on December 8, 1973. Gardner-Webb was truly honored to be invited to participate because of the many other fine teams over which we were chosen.

Gardner-Webb's opponent in the Poultry Bowl was Stephen F. Austin University of Texas. The Lumberjacks of Stephen F. Austin, with a record of nine wins and two losses, were highly regarded.

The score was 10-3 at halftime with the Bulldogs still very much in the game. The Bulldogs lost two fine scoring chances, one when they advanced to the four yard line and later when they had a first down on the six and had to settle for a field goal in the first half.

The Bulldog running game was slowed by the early first period injury to Frank Taylor. On Taylor's first carry of the game he received a leg injury and was unable to return for the final 55 minutes of playing time. Taylor gained more than 1,000 yards for the Bulldogs during the season. The first Bulldog score came on a 22 yard field goal by Mike Stephens. The Gardner-Webb touchdown was scored by junior halfback, Scott Thompson from the two yard line. The game closed out the Bulldogs' most successful season in senior college history with seven wins and five losses, including the trip to the Poultry Bowl.

The 1973 Gardner-Webb Football team compiled the best record in its senior college history with seven wins against five losses, including a trip to the Poultry Bowl in Gainesville, Georgia.

The offense showed a great deal of improvement over past years. Frank Taylor, Freshman halfback, was the leading rusher with 1014 yards. He was followed by George Gillian and Dennis Dukes with 714 and 217 yards, respectively.

Quarterback Doc Davis completed 70 passes for 962 yards and four touchdowns. His favorite receiver was Ken Reid who caught 27 passes for 416 yards and two touchdowns. Mike Stephens led in scoring with twenty-one P.A.T.'s and eight field goals. Eddie McKinney led in kickoff returns with 24 returns for 536 yards and a 22.3 average. The defense was led by William Peppers, with seven interceptions and five fumble recoveries and Richard Wofford, who led in punt returns. Other defensive standouts were Richard Grissom, Arnold Smith, Mike Godfrey and Billy Warnock.

Next year looks even brighter with only five seniors, Jody Anthony, Buzz Simms, Richard Grissom, Mike Godfrey and Ken Reid, graduating. Bulldog football will certainly be strong again next year.

BASKETBALL BIG SUCCESS

Bulldog basketball was at its best during the 1973-74 season with Coach Eddie Holbrook's cagers winning 22 straight and advancing to the second round of the NAIA nationals in Kansas City. The Bulldogs won the NAIA District 26 title whipping Lenoir Rhyne and Johnson C. Smith University. In the nationals the Bulldogs creamed Oregon Tech 91-56 and then lost to powerful West Georgia, 116-101, which went on to win the National title.

The success of the season must go to every man on the squad, plus a fine coaching staff which gave its best for the school. John Drew and Jim Blanks led the scoring parade with Drew averaging better than 25 points including a 32-point average in the national tourney. Both men made the All-District team. Billy Ellis, Steve Fischer, Doug Turner and Bruce Dye did the job outside for the Bulldogs while Alvin Jones. John Searight and Lester Stinson were inside power-men. Alan Hoover, Billy Thornhill, Don Foster and Ken Long provided some valuable bench strength.

Past records were shattered by the cagers this season, but the most impressive was the 22-game winning string. The string broke the record of 11-straight wins by a big margin. The Bull-dogs lost two early season games, both by two points, and then went on the winning streak which carried them into the second round of the nationals in Kansas City.

Individually, Drew had two big nights in the district tourney scoring 42 points against Lenoir Rhyne and then 44 against Johnson C. Smith. Blanks had 37 one game against Fort Hays State, for his season high. Drew had 25 and 39 points in the two games in the nationals.

The season included a four-game exhibition trip to Europe with the Bulldogs winning two in England and splitting two in Italy. The trip to Italy, England and Ireland was a real highlight of the season for the players.

The brightest spot of all is that all of the men except Ken Long will return for Coaches Hol-brook, Ron Hooper and Roger Banks.

Coach Jerry Bryson's baseball team attracted national attention in the 1973 season by playing three major NCAA powers, North Carolina State, Maryland, and the University of South Carolina. Despite playing with only one senior, the Bulldogs earned a district play-off birth.

The Bulldogs finished the season with a 12-7 record. Two losses came in the district play-offs. Hard hitting second baseman, David Rodgers, was named to the All-District 26 team. Rodgers batted .386 and was second in the NAIA nationally in doubles, hitting 10 in 19 games for an 0.53 per game average.

TENNIS 1973-74

Tennis, under the direction of P. A. Cline, enjoyed its best season ever since joining the senior college ranks. The 1973 Bulldog netters finished the season with eight wins and thirteen losses. Many of the losses were by narrow margins to some very strong teams.

The tennis team is still in a rebuilding stage but with experienced veterans such as Bert Brimberry, Charlie Nixon, and Evertt Robbins returning, the 1974 team should prove to be strong and improve on its record.

Decker takes first place In Intramural Football

Participating in girls' intramural football were the teams from Decker, HAPY, Nanney and Stroup. The teams were played against each other until the double elimination games of which Decker was the victor. This team received a trophy for winning the championship playoff game.

The final game of the season pitted Decker's team against an All-Star composite consisting of the best players from the respective dorms. Spirit was kept light at the game by the male cheerleaders and the electing of a male homecoming queen. Decker's only loss of the season occurred with this game.

Enthusiasm was kept high by the keen competition. Many games were played into overtime and variors injuries resulted for the spirit of the game! Outstanding players were recognized for their ability, including Yana Bane who received a trophy for the most valuable player.

MISS NELLIE JOLLEY

Athletic Department Secretary

Handling incoming phone calls and the volumes of correspondence that come through the athletic department is a gigantic task itself and requires many hours of attention. However, Nellie Jolley not only looks after this but also serves as right hand in many other activities of the athletic department.

With the growth of Bulldog Athletics Nellie can be seen helping attend to details of Bulldog Director's meetings, helping with organization of banquets, assisting with ticket sales, listening to "homesick" campers during the summer camp program or other clerical duties. She is certainly never lost for something to do.

SENIORS

Gardner-Webb's class of seniors found that their graduating class was one of flurried individual activity and breaking of tradition. A graduation ceremony took place December 15, 1973 with about seventy-five of the senior class receiving diplomas from G-W. This graduation was the first in the school's history to take place after first semester. The senior class officers were: Bob Grant, President; Patti Epley, Vice-president; Linda Swaim, Secretary; and Peggy Caldwell, Treasurer.

JUNIORS

Once upon a midnight dreary
All the Juniors were tired and weary
So they decided they would transfer
But quoth President Houston, "Nevermore."

So they stayed and tried to study
Although the campus was wet and muddy
They tried to find a liquor store
But quoth the Judicial Board, "Nevermore."

Deeper and deeper in a slump they got
And all knew they had to do a lot,
And all were looking for the "wedding-way" out,
But quoth the money, "Nevermore."

The only hope now for them to survive
Was to wait for their Senior year to arrive.
Will they make it? Can they last?
Quoth the Juniors, "Nevermore."

Junior class officers are: Leonard Houston, President; Debbie Burns, Vice-president; Mary Wells, Secretary; and Lora Harrison, Treasurer.

SOPHOMORES

FRESHMEN

The Freshman Class of 1973-74 began with several days of orientation. The class chose the following officers: (seated) Sherry Setzer, Secretary; Ladell Thompson, Treasurer; (standing) Bobby Trexler, Vice-President; and Sabra Clodfelter, President. Although activities were limited, a bonfire was given during Homecoming week. Also, the Freshmen took honors for best stadium decorations with a display of large tombstones bearing Carson-Newman names and a gigantic dead eagle of blue and orange. Activities were headed by sponsors Jerry Walker and Coach Holbrook.

WGWG - Voice of GARDNER-WEBB

The area's newest radio station, WGWG, a 5,000 watt educational FM station, owned and operated by Gardner-Webb College went on the air full time January 22, 1974. It is located at 88.3 on the FM dial and operates from eight o'clock each morning until midnight. The studios are located on the college campus. A 200 foot tower has been built near the studio. Much of the equipment for the station was made possible by a gift in excess of $30,000 by the family of the late Lee P. Frans, of Hickory, North Carolina. Ellis Greenway, a veteran of 20 years of radio work, is the manager of the station.

JERRY CLOWER —

What can be said about such a warmhearted person with such a radiant personality?

Among comments that can be written are two statements. First, he exhibits a genuine happiness. This is because he stands in right relationship with Jesus Christ and he has a Christ-like love for his fellowman. Second, he is himself, he is courteous, and he is a hustler.

On the stage, Jerry Clower is a delightful and rewarding humorist telling stories of his boyhood in his beloved Amite County in Mississippi. Off the stage in conversation, rapping about current issues he will astound you with his quick intelligence and insight. Truly to meet him, one comes away amazed and impressed by this Christian gentleman.

Due to circumstances beyond my control, I was omitted from the previous pages of this yearbook. Therefore I have been given a special page all of my very own. To the left you will see my photograph which was taken at an announced date and time.

I was terribly busy the day the clubs I am active in were taken so I had them remade and you will see it at the bottom of the page.

I never seemed to be around when candid photos were being taken so I have also included a space for that. And since I have been so involved in the college I have also written my own body copy to remember it all.

As I sit here scribbling down words of thoughts I think of many things which have happened here at Gardner-Webb over the past several months.

We returned to school in August to find the Webb Building addition was completed, the new library is about to be finished and we now have our very own radio station, WGWG.

The football team had a winning season and participated in the first annual Poultry Bowl. Our basketball team traveled to Europe and they, too, enjoyed a winning season

Jerry Clower, Homecoming festivities, Poultry Bowl, no Dead-Day, extended semester break, yearbook name changed, Ray Stevens — all these things are now memories. Yet they are now a part of the history of Gardner-Webb.

We are also a part of Gardner-Webb. We make Gardner-Webb what she is. Even when we depart from here and go our separate ways we are a part of Gardner-Webb. She stands for Christian quality and strives to produce quality Christian students.

We talk about Gardner-Webb's uniqueness. Sure, we are different. But that's what keeps us growing. We are progressing and becoming better and better as time goes by therefore making it possible for us to better ourselves.

We gripe about no open dorms, guy's hair-length rules, females' curfew hours, the dress code, the food, the postal system, the professors, the academic program and on and on, endlessly.

If these are the only things that ever trouble us then, truly, Gardner-Webb is developing students who think for themselves.

What about the energy crisis and our nation's shortage of gas? What about the rising cost of food which makes it hard to buy for 2,000 people? What about the truckers' strikes which is a big factor in American economy? What about the wars being fought, the people being killed, the children getting kidnapped, or the pride and prestige of America?

These problems are real. We don't seem to be too concerned with them though. Why should we? We have a cozy environment, friendly atmosphere, patient listeners of gripes and understanding of individualism right here in our little world of Gardner-Webb. Let's face reality. We're only a small part of this nation. Yet as individuals we are a big part of Gardner-Webb. Working together we can take our stand and help make America a better place in which to live.

Be proud of Gardner-Webb. You're a part of her. You chose her as your place to be. She will help mold you only into what you have chosen to become. We are fortunate in ways we may not yet understand of being a part of G-W.

It is my hopes that each of you here achieve the goals you have set for yourselves. Don't ever forget that love, which is expressed in many different ways and to many degrees, is what all could give more of instead of waiting to receive.

At this time I would like to give special thanks to those who gave me encouragement and understanding while putting together this yearbook. First of all thanks to Mr. Bill Boyd, my advisor who always had faith in me to get the job done; and to Mr. David Webb, who gave of his time to help whenever needed. To Mrs. Mildred Poston, a special thanks for all the times she listened to my frustrations and problems and helped pick me up when I began to fall down.

Many thanks and a great deal of appreciation to the guys who managed to put up with me and do some great photography ——Wayne Wike, Garry Cloer, "Chappie" Chapman, and Mark Robertson.

Thanks to Jo Guest, who contributed the body copy; Kay Abrams, who printed the opening section; Danny Spillman for his art work; Caron Calvert for her help at deadline time; Lori Starnes, Cindy Eagle and those who helped in any way toward the publication of this yearbook.

I would like to give a very special thanks to my roommate, Bidgie Buchanan. Thank you, Bidgie, for the patience, understanding and encouragement you always gave to me, especially after I worked late nights on the yearbook. Thanks for all our long talks, our trying times and the wonderful memories I now have. But thanks most of all for being you — a friend to whom I owe a lot.

It is my sincere hope that I have in some way recorded the memories you have of this past year at Gardner-Webb. These pages are memories now. I hope you will enjoy the WEB both now and in years to come.

It's been a lonely job and the lonliest moment is now, as you read this, but the experience gained and the personal relationships found have made it all worthwhile.

In closing, I leave you this thought:
From these past few years of security,
We step forth into the unwritten future.
Maybe a little more mature . . .
Maybe a little better prepared . . .
To write our fates . . .
Always Students of Life.

Lots of luck!
Friend of all,
Ann Crump
